

Bibliography Media Reports

- Asimov, N. (1997, January 27). California schools rate D-minus in report: Exhaustive study blames Prop 13 for the damage. The San Francisco Chronicle, A2.
- Balcom, S. (1995, May 17). ESL short-changing other students. Vancouver Sun, B4.
- Barrie Examiner (2003, March 17). Language funding misses mark. Barrie Examiner, A4.
- Bell, P. (1994, October 21). Trustee admits ESL program has deteriorated. Ottawa Citizen, B6.
- Boyd, D. (1994, October 5). Time to chalk up the all-expenses-paid ESL education into history. Vancouver Sun, B1.
- City of Richmond. (2003). Hot Facts, March 2003. Richmond, BC.
- Climenhaga, D. (1992, October 4). Immigrant parents fear budget cuts in ESL. Calgary Herald, A3.
- Crowson, S. (2000, March 4). ESL students lose out in city schools, panel told. Calgary Herald, B5.
- Dawson, C. (1998, January 7). Administrators warned to keep track of ESL results. Calgary Herald, B2.
- Dempster, L. & Albert, S. (1998, February 18). Calgary a leader in ethnic minorities. Calgary Herald, A1-2.
- Derworiz, C. (2001, February 11). 'They decided he was retarded': But mom says school system was wrong about her son; he just couldn't speak English. Calgary Herald, A3.
- Duffy, A. (2004) Class Struggles: Public Education and the New Canadian. Toronto: Toronto Star. http://www.atkinsonfoundation.ca/files/Duffy\_web.pdf
- Flinn, B. (2005, January 28). Critics: fund ESL programs. Daily News, p.8.

- Ford, C. (2003, November 30). Give them a chance with ESL. Calgary Herald, A15.
- Greenspon, E. (2001, May 19). Time for the Next Challenge. Globe and Mail.
- Jaimet, K. (2000, March 21). Special education, ESL fight for funding. Ottawa Citizen, D1.
- Jean, M. (2005). Quoted in "Jean: 'I am moved and honoured'". Toronto Star, Thursday, August 4, 2005. Www.thestar.com.
- Johnson, G. (2004, January 26). ESL teachers feel the crunch. Vancouver Sun, A7.
- Johnston, A. (1990, August 27). Students pressed for time. Calgary Herald, B1.
- Knapp, S. (2003, September 2). Support sought for pupil language barriers Series: 3Rs- Reading, Writing and Revenue. Calgary Herald, A1.
- McInnes, C. (1993, May 3). First you have to learn English. Globe and Mail, A1.
- Nikiforuk, A. (2004). The sad state of ESL: How we're short-changing our newcomers and ourselves. Tree House Canadian Family, May/June, 22-24.
- O'Connor, E. (2004, September 26). More need to learn English but resources are shrinking. The Province, A12.
- Ogilvie, C. (1997, July 2). Students, ESL down drain: Immigrant children get failing grades as language instruction disappears. The Province, A4.
- Paul, R. (1999, January 29). Province sets limit on ESL funding. Nanaimo Daily News, A2.
- Riley, S. (1994, September 25). Blame funding for ESL classes, not immigrants, for school woe. Ottawa Citizen, A5.
- Ruttan, S. (1993, March 10). Professor attacks ESL cuts. Calgary Herald, B1.
- Shelley, S. (2003). The changing face of public education: ESL, a high needs arena. ATA News, 37(11).
- Siddiqui, H. (2002, July 21). Give an immigrant a smile today; He will help pay for your pension, social services and medicare. Toronto Star, A13.
- Simons, P. (2002, March 11). Immigrant children challenge for schools: They are yet another reason why public schools need funds. Edmonton Journal, B1.
- Steffenhagen, J. (2002a, September 17). Schools seek cash to deal with refugees: Needs of many immigrants 'deeper than ESL can provide'. Vancouver Sun, B1.

Steffenhagen, J. (2002b, September 17). Crush of immigrants prompts schools to plead for help: Consortium of six Lower Mainland school boards wants more funding. Vancouver Sun, B1.

Steffenhagen, J. (2000, February 12). ESL fails many immigrant children: Many of those with little formal education are getting poor grades and some are opting to drop out, Vancouver educators say. Vancouver Sun, B5.

Tsang, P. (2003, May 24). English language funds inadequate, says group. Calgary Herald, B3.

Vancouver Sun (1996, October 25). ESL, not flags: Ottawa skirts its responsibility by not investing in language training. Vancouver Sun, editorial, A22.

Yaffee, B. (1994, July 9). ESL an expense this country can't afford. Vancouver Sun, B3.

Zehr, M. A. (2001). California's English fluency rate helps fuel debate. Education Week, 21 (14), 23.